

Moral Compass v2.2.1a

Recognition, Direction, Remembrance

Public Release Version: June 2025

Including Guideline Alpha, Guideline 0, Guidelines 1–6, 23 Tension Fields, MKEM, Reflection Crystal, EIP-R/A, Thought M

© 2025 H.S. van Aken

Version: Moral Compass v2.2.1a

License: Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 (CC BY-SA 4.0)

See remix conditions in Appendix A

Published under Creative Commons License CC BY-SA

Table of Contents

Part 1 – Guidelines

Guideline Alpha – Integrity

Guideline 0 – The Spark

Guidelines 1–6

Part 2 – The 23 Tension Fields

Introduction

The Relational Structure

Application within the Compass

Conclusion

Part 3 – MKEM: Moral Compass Ethics Methodology

Structure of MKEM

MCMC Layers & Convergence Mechanism

Friction Tests

Thought Models in MKEM

Alpha Testing as Absolute Condition

Outcomes of MKEM

Part 4 – EIP-R/A: Ethical Iterative Process with Guideline Alpha

Phasing of the Process

Part 5 – Reflection Crystal: Ethical Self-Mirror for Sacred Language

Core Functionality

Multidimensional Operation

Practical Example

Origin and Necessity

Integration in MKEM

Unique Value

Part 6 – Glossary of the Moral Compass

Part 7 – Appendices

Appendix A – Remix Conditions for Open Use

Appendix B – Sources and Acknowledgments

Appendix C – AI Stress Tests and Guardians

Appendix D – Defenseless Value: Beyond the Boundary of Measurability

Translated Content of Moreel Kompas v2.2.1a

Part 1 – Guidelines

Guideline Alpha – Integrity

Integrity is the undivided wholeness that precedes every moral action. It serves as the primary touchstone: Is it truthful, coherent, and aligned with the highest values?

Guideline 0 – The Spark

The Spark is the spontaneous origin of moral consciousness. It marks the moment when moral awareness ignites, often with a sense of awe or wonder.

Guideline 1 – Connection

Connection is the recognition that moral meaning arises in relationships. Without relationships, there is no ethics.

Guideline 2 – Insight

Insight is the ability to perceive clearly, without projection or distortion.

Guideline 3 – Compassion

Compassion is the capacity to remain present with the suffering of another.

Guideline 4 – Responsibility

Responsibility is the acknowledgment of the other and the protection of defenseless value.

Guideline 5 – Meaning in Relationships

Meaning is a relational event. By allowing the other to flourish, one unlocks one's own meaning.

Guideline 6 – Breach as Origin

In the experience of pain or meaninglessness, the moral foundation becomes visible. From this, new integrity can arise.

Part 2 – The 23 Tension Fields